DID YOU KNOW?

Traditional Tibetan Medicine is commonly known as “Sowa Rigpa” is a very ancient medical system based on Buddhist philosophy and psychology, considered to be one of the oldest, living and well documented medical tradition from the world over. It explains that everything existing or non-existing in the world derives from the mind and the five elements. Traditional Tibetan medicine is over 2,500 years old and said to originate from the medical teaching given by the Buddha around 500 BC.
